

MSU Student Radio / WDBM-FM Now Hiring Specialty Show Host

Current Show Seeking Host or Co-Host

- Torch & Twang (Host & Co-Host) (Americana)
- The Pulse (Co-Host) (Electronic Dance Music, Live Mixing)
- Thee Hourz 'o' Power (Heavy Metal, Extreme Metal)
- The Cultural Vibe (Co-Host) (Urban Contemporary, Hip Hop, RnB, Rap)
- The Afterglow (Co-Host) (Chillwave, Downtempo)
- Pity Party (Co-Host) (Emo, Punk)
- Or a music show idea of your own!

Requirements

- Must be a student at Michigan State University
- Must be a trained Live DJ or Voice-Tracker of MSU Student Radio
- Must be available show's timeslot and prepare/preprogram show
  - (i.e. creating a 2 hour playlist for live airplay)
- Must be able to produce and (co-)host every show
- Must have an active interest in Specialty Show's genre

Salary

This is a non-paid volunteer position.

Typical Duties & Responsibilities

- Work closely with Station Manager on overall sound of the show
- Work closely with the Program Director on the programming direction
- Work closely with Music Director on music screening and selection
- Create a weekly playlist
- Update social media throughout the week and during the show
- Communicate with campus organizations to promote community events
- Update the DJ info packet weekly
- Fill in when and where necessary to accomplish stated objectives

This position will stay open until filled.
interviews will be scheduled on a rolling basis.

Please submit an application form and resume to Program Director, Michael Pomorski.
Email any questions to programming@impact89fm.org.

MSU Student Radio is an equal opportunity employer.