

MSU Student Radio / WDBM-FM
Now Hiring
Engineering Director

Basic Qualifications

- Must be a student at MSU
- Must be a trained member of the Impact or willing to be trained
- Has experience with recording artists/interviews in a studio environment
- Has familiarity with general use audio equipment (mixing consoles, microphones, etc.)
- Strong communication skills
- Developed leadership skills through prior experience

Typical Duties and Responsibilities

- Recording artists in the studio and creating a mix
- Coordinating and directing volunteer meetings
- Responsible for organizing and maintaining audio equipment
- Collaboration with other station department heads on joint projects
- Some evening and weekend work necessary

Salary

This position requires approximately 5-10 hours per week. The salary level is competitive and based upon prior experience.

Applications are accepted until the position is filled
Interviews will be scheduled on a rolling basis.

If interested, please submit a resume to Operations Manager: Marissa Saldivia at operations@impact89fm.org

MSU Student Radio is an equal opportunity employer