

MSU Student Radio / WDBM - FM

Now Hiring

Assistant News Director

Basic Qualifications

- Must be a student at Michigan State University
- Experience editing audio with Hindenburg, Adobe Audition or Audacity
- Ability to create audio narratives
- Must be trained on the FIX

Preferred Qualifications

- Advanced understanding of the construction of stories
- Strength in identifying trends in media and culture
- Experience with launching independent projects
- Completed all Level 2 News Team requirements or equivalent training

Salary

This position requires approximately 10-20 hours per week. Employee would begin immediately. The salary level is competitive and based on prior experience.

Typical Duties & Responsibilities

- Hold weekly in-office hours (3 hours minimum)
- Attend weekly News Team meetings and director meetings
- Run a volunteer team and train / assist them on the creation of audio narratives
- Create weekly content for alternative news podcast, The Undercurrent

Applications are accepted until the position is filled

Interviews will be scheduled on a rolling basis.

Please submit an application and resume to Operations Manager Sana

Hakim at operations@impact89fm.org

MSU Student Radio is an equal opportunity employer.

