

MSU Student Radio / WDBM - FM

Now Hiring

Assistant Video Director

Basic Qualifications

- Must be a student at Michigan State University
- Proficient in Adobe video editing software (Premiere, After Effects, Audition, Photoshop)
- Knowledge of content from competing social media outlets (Pitchfork, Noisey, BuzzFeed)
- Technical proficiency with equipment, codecs, and storage devices
- Strong organizational skills
- Trained on the FIX

Preferred Qualifications

- Coursework in Media, and Information Studies (MI 341 & MI 342) or equivalent
- Self-directed, with a vision for successfully completing projects with resources available
- Team oriented, willing to positively contribute to larger station goals, as needed
- Strong sense of aesthetics in color, framing, camera movement
- Ability to recognize and predict interests for our target audience
- Experience/interest in learning about live video broadcasting

Typical Duties & Responsibilities

- Plans and executes video projects to maximize station exposure
- Edits, color corrects, finalizes, and shares videos
- Produce videos collaboratively with other departments (e.g News, Content, Sports)
- Oversee management of Impact YouTube Channel
- Manage video team volunteers

Salary

This position requires approximately 15-20 hours per week. Employee would begin immediately. The salary level is competitive and based on prior experience. Applications are accepted until the position is filled. Interviews will be scheduled on a rolling basis.

Applications are accepted until the position is filled

Interviews will be scheduled on a rolling basis.

Please submit an application and resume to Operations Manager Sana Hakim at operations@impact89fm.org

MSU Student Radio is an equal opportunity employer.

