

MSU Student Radio / WDBM - FM
Now Hiring

Pity Party

Specialty Show Co-Host

Basic Qualifications

- Must be a student at Michigan State University
- Must be a trained Live DJ or Voice-Tracker of MSU Student Radio
- Must be available during show's time slot - Wednesday nights from 8 - 10PM - and prepare / pre-program show
 - (i.e. creating a 2 hour playlist for live airplay)
- Must be able to help produce and co-host every show
- Must have an active interest in emo and punk music

Typical Duties & Responsibilities

- Work closely with Station Manager and Program Director on overall sound of the show
- Work closely with Program Director on the programming of the show
- Work closely with Music Director on music screening and selection
- Create a weekly playlist
- Update social media throughout the week and during the show
- Communicate with campus organizations to promote community events
- Update the DJ info packet weekly with updates to the show

Salary

- This position is a non-paid volunteer position

Applications are accepted until the position is filled.

Interviews will be scheduled on a rolling basis. Please submit an application and resume to Program Director, Amber Kienutske, at programming@impact89fm.org

MSU Student Radio is an equal opportunity employer.